THERE IS AN EASTER PARADE

AT LEAST FIFTH AVENUE WAS FULL OF FOLKS.

And Most of Them Had on New Clothes Which Gave an Observer the Impreston That Bright Colors Are to Rule Many Visitors From Out of Town.

Well, speaking of Easter, if you didn't have a bordure on your crepu you were tie better than a plain hick. Without he bordure thing you belonged to the and that clung to the tall iron fence the Vanderbilt mansion peering through he bars to see if a wild valet would leap to the shrubbery.

on the word of a volunteer fashionist on might have strolled haughtily in the Rig Parade poke bonneted and tight sleeved, with a skirt like a pillow case and the newest thing out in bronze kicks, but without the bordure edging your crepu you might as well have stuck at home with the merry villagers beating thup and down Main street past the Palace Hotel and the New York store. In a crepu of ecru bounded by a bordure of Oriental design and coloring you could have looked any girl coldly in the eye exceping proudly by.

a time years ago when old gentlemen whose names lived on the first pages of newspapers and old ladies who were somebodies in Society moved innor-live new special society moved innor-live net vokes.

and hosts of Rubbernecks of the period of President Hayes stared admiringly from the curbs. But all that is changed, because the dwellers in Fifth avenue nowadays are in the country or Europe or Florida at Easter time and the parade is made up of anybody who can stake himself or herself to a new coat. If you had seen Flossie, third girl on the left as you face the stage, swing by the Cathedral yesterday afternoon, proud as an Atlantic liner, or Nellie the Beautiful Model Lady, done up in one of those Pompeiian red moyan age hip-to be seen as to see, a little sorry, maybe, that they hadn't anything better than last spring's duds fresh from the cleaner's, int making a brave front for all that. In making a brave front for all that. And to these were added the hungry eyed from out of town—Canadians from Montreal, Quebec and Ottawa. Middle Westerners all the way from Indiana and Ohio to see the big free show, long limbed, drawling Southerners, up-State folks with an eye to the latest tricks of fashion, Jerseyites, crafty milliners from the incovered shouldered, wide hatted, gusty mine owners from Idaho, Nevada or Colorado—as many in all as kept the side—way for the first tricks of the same than the stirrups of the adm in a few minutes at them in the stirrups of a steel suspension bar, then he took a breath, last they hadn't anything better than botton treats does not be steel suspension bar, then he took a breath, last the took a breath, last they minute the stirrups of a steel suspension bar, then he took a breath, last the took a breath, last then he took a breath did the bar was over his head. Ringling spread and the bar was over his head. Ringling a spread with a pot of tea. In spite of the adm mitions of an alert consistence of a lank it. With the second cup and the sturrups of a steel suspension bar, then he took a breath, last the took a breath, last the took a breath, last the took a breath victor Herman set them in the stirrups of a steel suspension bar, then he took a breath, last will test to his seed suspension bar, then he took a breath, last will restrict to head to him the stirrups of a steel suspension bar, then he took a breath with the took a breath last will the steel suspension bar, then he took a breath last will be at the head. The head to head the bar was over his head. The head to head the bar was over his head. The head to head the bar was over his head. The head to head the bar was over his head. The head to he and display of glad rags. They blamed it on the sunny weather mostly, recalling other Easters that were cold and wet and worth of young goat hide. Also in ancient times there was an Easter of the Princess Gown which pleased any girl with a regular figure and led to the discovery that curves can be bought. There was too, you may remember, the Straight Front Faster followed by the Fester of the Front Faster followed by the Fester of the star of the Front Easter, followed by the Easter of the Green Gown and within easy recolthe Green Gown and within eas lection the Merry Widow Easter. th merry cry the Poke Bonnet also to be described as the Easter e Bronze Shoe.

of the Bronze Shoe.

Always remembering that the bordure on the crepu was as indispensable as a powder puff, the poke lid with its broad bands of ribbon falling over the ears and knotting under the chin, and the slippers of bronze with silk stockings to match were the real things in the big parade. Standing at the corner of Fiftieth street and the avenue one got many a surprise from those deceptive poke bonnets. They were so demure and prim and proper that you looked to find the girl under them caually sedate. Never! The old fashioned, new fashioned liddings proved yesterday what fine foils they are for busy, mischievous, sparkling eyes.

Inschievous, sparkling eyes.

Inschievous, sparkling eyes.

Inschievous, sparkling eyes.

Inschievous sparkling eyes as indispensable as a black jack or a slungshot.

As he fell with several deep gashes on the back of his head his assailants bent over him as if intending to rifle his pockets but, perhaps frightened, they ran away tenement in North Sixth street. There was no policeman around, so several men distance went to his aid and carried him to the Bedford avenue police station. From there he was removed to the Williamsburg Hospital, where his injuries were treated. Later he was liquid to the extent of the back of his head his assailants bent over him as if intending to rifle his pockets but, perhaps frightened, they ran away tenement in North Sixth street. There was no policeman around, so several men distance went to his aid and carried him to the Bedford avenue police station. From there he was removed to the williams were the extent of the back of his head his assailants bent over him as in intending to rifle his pockets but, see fell with several deep gashes on the back of his head of his assailants bent over h

It in schievous, sparkling eyes.

By shutting the eyes for a few seconds, then opening them suddenly and winking rapidly a number of times, you could almost tancy that Fifth avenue was a carriage drive running between two marvellous flower beds, so gay were the colors. There's to be nothing dull and sombre a women's war paint this year if the laster parade can be taken as inside information. Any girl who wants to and I gay, the robbers money. The men who with harm and rather than get into trouble. If any girl who wants to and has the price can shut her eyes and snatch at the tainbow. Anything she gets will 20. Among the proper shades as gathered by a calm and patient inspection of the parade are London smoke gray, buttercup yellow, blush rose pink, Pombelian red and Copenhagen blue. If these are a trifle too flashy for a modest of asies of roses. Nothing doing in white, while few of our important dressers would be seen in a back street in some shades of precunt of I o clock yesterday afternoon seven is seven minutes there drifted past the corner of Fittieth street and Fifth avenue in 1 o clock yesterday afternoon seven is accounterfeiting. The price can be accounted by the content of the parade are conditioned in the content of the parade are conditioned in the content of the prisoners against the watchman was killed because, as alleged, he had turned informer in Russia in a counterfeiting case and came to this country to escape the vengeance of the friends of the prisoners against whom he testified. Friends of the dead of the prisoners against whom he testified. Friends of the dead of the prisoners against whom he testified in the prisoners against whom he te so the silver splashed heel arrived the Avenue. The girl whose slipper s were decorated with lacy fixings hiny silver, fleur de lis, barred ciraprays of violets or a monogram toking pulpedy's dust. She was this of obtaining financial control of all in which this city is situated. Included in the tentative plans is the proposed purchase of 51 per cent. of the stock of the Mexican Light and Power Company and the Mexican Tramways Company.

Copenhagen blues.

These two companies are owned by the same Canadian and American interests and represent an investment of upward of its throre than three pairs of combined the series of the same Canadian and American interests and represent an investment of upward of its series of combined the same canadian and control of all the same utilities in the Federal district, in which this city is situated. Included in the tentative plans is the proposed purchase of 51 per cent. of the stock of the Mexican Light and Power Company.

These two companies are owned by the same Canadian and American interests and represent an investment of upward of Federal Government design.

ween 12 o'clock and 2, when the educat and all of the other big churches pried their congregations into the Government merger railway system.

LAYING UP MONEY

makes man, woman, or child independent on many annoyances, large and small. The trouble is-most people can't save money.

That is where we can help you. Our savings plan is new and is worth knowing about. It pays you 41/5 interest and is abso utely sa'e because its basis is New York City guaran:eed first mortgages.

You can invest $10 per month or more. Send coupon below or postal for our booklet.

TITLE GUARANTEE AND TRUST CO

170 Broadway, New York Please send "The Safe Way to Save." advertised in The Sun (T), to

175 Remsen St., Bklyn. | Capital & Surplus 350 Fulton St., Jamaica | $12,000,000

Avenue, and the parade ground was choked with slow moving sightseers, the new fashions cried the loudest. Then you wondered what would happen if a woman tripped and fell wearing one of those extra long straight front affairs that reach half way to the knees. It looked as if somebody would have to send in a one alarm for the hook and ladder company, but, as the girl with the splashed silver heel said, you never can tell. Anyway, it ought to cheer a girl up to know that she can still wear last importations and Undoubtedly the Most levels and Undoubtedly the Most levels and Undoubtedly the Most levels and Interesting and property.

Avenue, and the parade ground was choked with slow moving sightseers, the new fashions cried the loudest. Then the intertainment arranged for the physical culturists, the professional weight wrestlers and breakfast fooders under the direction of the agreeable Mr. James Jay Brady of the Ringling Bros.' mammoth aggregation now playing a short season at the Garden. Herr Arthur and his two brothers, Herr Herman and Herr Kurt, own appetite it is impossible to please the splashed silver heel said, you never can tell. Anyway, it ought to cheer a girl up to know that she can still wear last importations and Undoubtedly the Most levels in those bureaus and no one will make use of them because of the inscription. Possibly the clerks themselves wouldn't mind the charity headlines, wrestlers and breakfast fooders under the direction of the agreeable Mr. James Jay Brady of the Ringling Bros.' mammoth aggregation now playing a short season at the Garden. Herr Arthur and his two both the intertainment arranged for the physical culturists, the professional weight wrestlers and breakfast fooders under the direction of the agreeable Mr. James Jay Brady of the Ringling Bros.' mammoth aggregation now playing a short season at the Garden. Herr Arthur and his two clerk in those bureaus and no one leit with the clerk in those bureaus and no one leit. evenue, and the parade ground was somebodies in Society moved importantly and majestically from the churches they favored for a short stroll along the Avenue.

They and their sons and daughters were the Easter Parade, little gayer than a funeral, and the Climbers and the Would Bes and hosts of Rubbernecks of the period of ene of those Pompeiian red moyan age hipless wonders, or Harold Hawthorne, salesgentleman from Sixth avenue, as beautiful as a whole bed of tulips—if you had levelled an eye at them you would never doubt that the Easter parade is still with the less than the least of the For when the bright, clean sunshine began to sparkle in the avenue and the spire of St. Patrick's flashed dazzingly and the church chimes began to sing the side streets poured thousands and thousands of Flossies and Nellies and Harolds into the fine, wide street, as well as more thousands who weren't there so much to be seen as to see, a little sorry, maybe, with his brother the Assemblyman and with his brother the Assemblyman and Victor Herbert and Boston Jack Mc-parade and joined its parts again with market at 217 and 219 North Ninth street. a short blast of their whistles, the stage managers of the Easter show, said they man, was found murdered about ten had never seen anything like it for size days ago and whose death has not yet days ago and whose death has not yet been cleared up by the police.

After the murder of the watchman cheerless, when flaunting ostrick plumes lay down on ladies' hat brims and pneumonia trailed the lifted skirt.

Leschinsky and Lefkowitz, who comprise the company, decided to have at least two or three men remain in the place at But to get back to this bordure on the crepu matter. There was back in the long ago an Easter of the Long Gloves when to make the loud splash you had to sasshay up and down the Avenue sheathed Starrday night and remained over night from finger tip to shoulder with $4.50

Any girl who wants to and I gave the robbers money. The men who attacked me to-day must have followed

uttercup yellows, terra cottas GOVERNMENT OWNED UTILITIES

She was bility of obtaining financial countries. First you the public utilities in the Federal district.

design to operate the light and power plants and street railway system of the Federal district in the same manner as the

MUCKRAKED THE STRONG MEN

Willing Press Agent Prepared to Let 'Em Prove Anything -Possibilities Too in a Trial of What an Elephant Can Do Compared With a Man if Properly Fed.

Herr Arthur Saxon picked up a 312 pound bar bell, nestled it against his chest for a minute, bent over and grew red in the face, then slowly hoisted it in his right hand high above his head. One inventor of germ proof breakfast food. one champion back lifter of America and three critical writers for health journals stood in the sawdust in Madison Square, Garden, little notebooks in hand, and marvelled.

Herr Arthur dropped that 312 pound bar bell with an ouff! and wiped his hands on a handkerchief. Then the dramatic critic for one of the magazines devoted to Health and Happiness shifted his little crook necked cane over his left wrist and struck his gloved hands together twice. "Brave!" said the dramatic critic, and once again "Bravo!"

Excepted, were the entertainers.

Happiness shall have turned in his copy for next month's number he will be supplied with data concerning the following interesting points: Relative weights of the largest elephant in Ringling Bros.'

The magazine of Health and where the landlady sits where she can keep track of every bite they swallow; if I say 'No' others pass on because they are afraid to take chances on the food in a house where the landlady won't come out open and aboveboard and eat the same victuals she gives the boarders. And there you are the same and they were the landlady sits where she can keep the same of they wall on the same with the same victuals.

way behind their brother in the lifting game.

There was that stunt of the two men. weighing together just 302 pounds. Herr Herman set them in the stirrups of a rochs the gnu, an elephant? What influence would the hind legs of each have upon the exercise of such powers?

arranging business which he was to transact last night.

He left the poultry shed about an hour before noon yesterday and as he was going away he noticed several men watching him from a distance. He thought nothing of it, but went along Roebling street. At North Sixth street the assailants—there were either three or four the rabbi told the police later—pounced upon him from behind and struck him with what was believed to be either a black jack or a slungshot.

As he fell with several deep gashes on the back of his head his assailants bent over him as if intending to riffe his pockets but, perhaps frightened, they ran away and were last seen entering an Italian

SUES HUSBAND'S KIN.

Paterson Woman Says They Allenated His Affections-Asks $25,000.

PATERSON, N. J., April 11.—Declaring that she has lost her husband's affections through a conspiracy on the part of her father-in-law, mother-in-law, sister-inlaw and the sister-in-law's husband. Mrs. Hannah Marcus has brought suit against all of them for $25,000 damages. The defendants are Abram and Rebecca Marcus and Joseph and Jennie Lewis. All are prominent in business and society here. Edward L. Marcus, the husband, a commission merchant. He is now Palestine and Mrs. Marcus believes were arraigned before Magistrate Kernochan in the Tombs court yesterday on a short affidavit made by Fred W. Blohm, a Central Office detective. The affidavit was based upon information furnished by Nathan Ballard of 320 West Forty-fourth street, who said the detectives had fourth street, who sail the detectives had accepted $30 in marked bills as consideration for the dismissal of certain prosecu-tions. The men were represented by Abe Levy. They were held in $2,000 bail each for examination on Wednesday afternoon. Bail was furnished by Louis Buhler of 205 East Fourteenth street.

Court Reporters' Dinner Saturday. The Association of Supreme Court

Scribes is to hold its annual dinner in who LIVE TOPICS ABOUT TOWN.

"I saw a new dinner table stunt last night," said a New York man who fre-HEALTH FOOD EXPERTS TEST quents the less expensive table d'hôte establishments of the city. "I was dining at one of the many places where a dinner with wine is served for 60 cents. A well dressed couple came in and took the next table. As soon as their two small bottles of claret had been brought the man pulled s lemon out of his pocket and the girl produced an orange from her muff. After produced an orange from her muff. After dividing these they squeezed and sliced and sugared and tasted the big ice filled glasses full of claret to their hearts' content and finally settled back in their chairs absolutely content with their improvised claret punch. The waiter didn't seem in the least surprised and the couple themselves were evidently so accustomed to the little game that they didn't mind being looked at by the people at adjoining tables. Their punch looked so good that I decided on the spot that I'd provide myself with an orange and a lemon the next time I came. What's the harm, anyway?"

"The only concerns I know of that don't have to watch their employees to notebook to his left hand, hitched his keep them from using office stationers for private correspondence are charity organizations," said the gray haired man. "Envelopes and letter paper may be piled three feet high in front of every clerk in those bureaus and no one will make use of them because of the inscrip-

Importations and Undoubtedly the Most everybody," said the landlady. "More Powerful Men in History, Samson Not often than you'd believe, considering the impertinence of the question, pros-James Jay Brady had three of his staff in an outside room during all the afternoon's enjoyment codifying figures and fixing up tables. Before the dramatic critic of the magazine of Health and the control of the magazine of Health and the control of the control a dish of sauerkraft and pickled pork; lifting powers of ditto.

A devoted New Jersey mother was hearing her four-year-old son in his even phant and of Herr Arthur; proportion between weights and lifting powers of both; caloric values of a ton-of hay and a dish of sauerkraut and pickled pork; lifting powers of ditto.

Mr. Brady said yesterday that if properly approached by the right party he might be persuaded to feed both Herr Arthur Saxon and the elephant on the germ proof breakfast food represented at yesterday's soirce for one week of seven days and at the end to make new where they endeavor to study each face with a view to determining the than I could afford," said the young where they endeavor to study each face seven days and at the end to make new where they endeavor to study each lace tests with a view to determining the influence upon the foot pounds of work capable of being done by both parties.

But Herr Arthur was not the only one who helped to make yesterday afternoon two hours trying hats on me. There one of scientific enjoyment for the physical culturists and the back lifter. Remember that there are Three Saxons. two reasons—it wasn't becoming and it Herr Kurt and Herr Herman are only a cost too much Presently the milliner said:
"You are too tired just now to make up your mind. Let me get you a cup of tea.

That will rest you.
"I protested, but she rang the bell,

Colorado—as many in all as kept the side—walks jammed from curb to stoop line until late in the afternoon.

The traffic squad men who split the in the Greenpoint Poultry Company's of Herr Herman Saxon, the auwith at least 50 cents and several turn over with at least 50 cents and several turn over a dollar or so to the driver every time they call out a cab. There are a few who don't have upon the exercise of such powers?

Then when the dramatic critic, the back lifter and the physical culturists had finished weighing the kettleweights and jotting down the weights in their notebooks Herr Arthur lay down on a padded cushion, lifted his stalwart legs and gripped a plank deftly with his insteps. Nine of the spectators, including Alf Ringling and two of the culturists, were lifted to seats on the board. The art department flicked the shutter and then the men as far as opera singers go.

Among the men the foreigners are mighty to the theory of the best actresses wouldn't stake a chauffeur to a nickel if it would save him from electrocution in his own machine. The nien are, with a few exceptions, good to us. Of course we don't count on theatrical tips in the summer; even the top notchers seem to be mighty poor then."

There are a few who don't come up at all. The women are better than the men as far as opera singers go. Among the men the foreigners are mighty but None is Turned Away—thou to the Organ Furnish Extra Music.

St. Patrick's Cathedral, with its gorgeous celebrants and its throng of worshippers, yesterday was the central point of the Catholic celebration of Easter. The one service of the day in which all the splendor of Easter preparations was evident was, of course, "Since the strike," continued the speaker."

mighty poor then."
"Since the strike," continued the speaker,
"tips have been a bit scarce. We never said a New York real estate man, "until building by the side entrance and were I began to watch the work of the young taking up seats in the pews to which It's really very interesting to watch her paste one little diagram over another, changing a vacant lot into a building under course of construction, and then, before long, changing this diagram again for another which means that the build-ing's been completed. The map tells ing's been completed. The map tells a good story of how small stores are torn down to make way for big apartment houses and how buildings of modern construction replace old fashioned ones. She has the little diagram all cut out and separated in different envelopes, a separate envelope for each block, and the way she tears down old buildings and puts up new ones on our maps is and puts up new ones on our maps is quite well worth watching." "We're getting to be a city of inveterate observed an old New elephoners." Yorker, "and I've come to the conclusion after a good deal of observation that the constant use of the telephone tends to petty deception and unnecessary falsehoods. Men and women who are naturally truthful and too honest to look one another in the face and tell even the whitest sort of a lie will at the opposite ends of a telephone wire rattle off small and unnecessary falsehoods as glibly as the most accomplished liars. The busy man thinks nothing of assuring a man on the telephone that he's just going to luncheon and won't be back for an hour when in reality he's just come in from luncheon. My wife puts off inquiring friends on the plea that she's just going to the dressmaker's and my daughter in the most sincere tone tells a young man over the telephone that she's got a headache and can't see him when as a matter of fact some special beau is calling upon her and she doesn't want to be disturbed. It seems to me that the telephone habit is responsible for a lot of this long distance fibbing." whitest sort of a lie will at the opposite

Finds per Husband a Saicide.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., April 11 .- Louis Robbins, a designer, who had been married only three months, killed himself late last night at his home, 91 Remsen avenue, this city, by firing a bullet into his temple. He was found by his wife. Scribes is to hold its annual dinner in the "College hall" of the Hotel Astor on Saturday night. Several of the Justices of the Supreme Court and a number of the lawyers who practise in that court will be present.

Borrow a Caloris Bottle from Us

Let us lend it to you for a month-or six weeks-or two months. We return your deposit if you return the bottle.

The price you pay the dealer is considered simply a deposit.

Test the Caloris bottle thoroughly for a month-or six weeks-or two

. Then if for any reason whatever you would rather have your money than the Caloris bottle return the bottle to us in good condition.

Instantly and willingly we will re-fund the full amount you paid for it. We do this to make it easy for you to learn for yourself how Caloris bottles add to your comfort.

See How It Keeps Things HOT:-

-filled at a restaurant or at home. -hot-all ready for your breakfast.
-dishes prepared in the morning. hot and fresh for lunch or dinnercoffee, chocolate, tea, broth, etc., kept hot and fresh for the automobile, for travel, for the office or school lunch, or the sideboard.

-hot baby food for the nursery or the baby carriage.

See How It Keeps Things COLD:---iced lemonade or sherbet

—jellies —milk, kumyss, or soda water —champagne—(holds its sparkle)

Wouldn't YOU Like to Try It?

Wouldn't you like to prove these convenient, fascinating uses of the Caloris bottles and utensils for yourself? While you have this opportunity, why not let us lend you one? Why

Find out now what this perjected and practical cold-keeping and heat-keeping means to you and to your comfort—to your household and your Caloris utensils—caloris patents—and the Caloris process by which the utensils are manufactured—have now brought the vacuum principle of heatkeeping and cold-keeping to a form so durable and permanent that you can now buy and use them as readily as any other table or kitchen utensil.

It is cheaper to use them than to go without them

Prove this for yourself by using, for a month, or six weeks, or two months, the Caloris Bottle that we will lend to you.

It Gives Long Service

No other vacuum bottles will do. They are too fragile—too weak—they lose their power too easily.

For permanent, daily, useful uses the only bottles in the world that are strong enough to stand the strain and hold their power are Caloris bottles and utensils.

Caloris utensils hold forever their power to keep things hot or keep things cold. They are as hard to break as an ordinary dinner plate, and they stand just as much rough handling.

Don't Think Every Vacuum Bottle is a CALORIS Bottle

Your own intelligence must protect you against substitutes. If the word CALORIS isn't on the case it is NOT a real CALORIS.

Eight Thousand Bottles Behind Our Orders

But Will Fill Domestic Orders First Rather Than See You Take an Old Style. Imperfect Bottle Instead of a Caloris

WE ARE 8,000 BOTTLES BEHIND ON OUR OR-DERS, which have come from every point on the civilized Globe; but we will fill Home orders first. If your dealer has not a CALORIS send direct and we will fill through some other Dealer at no increased cost to you.

Our Philadelphia Factory is working day and night, and soon we shall have a new factory in Long Island City with more than double our present capacity, which will make us by far the largest Glass-blowing Establishment in the world.

CALORIS

Vacuum Bottles -84 Hours COLD Hours HOT

PRICES Mounted in All Nickel, Pint size $3.50. Quart ' 5.50. Quart ' 5.50.

and there are 35 other styles of mounting, varying in price from $2.00 to $8.50.

according to size and finish. SEND FOR BOOKLET

CALORIS-on scientific glass apparatus is the synonym for highest efficiency and absolute accuracy. Much of the glassware we make cannot be duplicated anywhere else in the United States.

New York Sales Office:

The Caloris Manufacturing Company of Philadelphia, Pa.

503 Fifth Avenue, at 42d Street

TO MERCHANTS. Concerning Patent Rights: Merchants are notified that the Caloris Manufacturing Company stands back of every Caloris bottle or utensil, and will defend vigorously, to the full extent of the law, all the Caloris patents, all rights in the Caloris Process of Manufacture, and in the construction of Caloris utensils. We do not, however, intend to prosecute any merchant who, through honess misunderstanding prior to this notice, now has on his hands bottles which may infringe on the Caloris patents.

Brilliant Service Draws a Great Crowd. but None Is Turned Away-Choir of preparations was evident was, of course. the pontfical mass at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. At 10 o'clock there was a goodly number of cardless men and women gathered about the front of the Cathedral waiting for the opening of the doors The crowd increased as the hour for the service grew near, and a passerby would be sure that hundreds must be turned away. Meanwhile those to whom cards to which was attached a plenary indulhad been issued were entering the the numbers on their cards assigned them. Not until the service was begun were the front doors opened; then a file of po-licemen on either side of the entrance passed the people in, and with no ap-pearance of crowding all the hundreds who had blocked Fifth avenue in front of the building found place for themselves in the great nave.

The pontifical mass was celebrated by Archbishop Farley. Vicar-General Lavelle was the assistant priest and the deacons of honor were the Right Rev. P. J. Hayes and the Rev. Dr. Daniel J. McMackin. Two students from the St. Joseph's Semi-

EASTER AT ST. PATRICK'S

Subdeacon of the mass. The Rev. James V. Lewis and the Rev. J. J. Byrne were the masters of ceremonies. At the right of the altar were a large number of Dunwoodie students and of the clergy of the diocese in black cassocks and white surplices. On the left of the altar the chancel choir, also in black and white, balanced choir also in black and white surplices.

subdeacon of the mass. The Rev. James V. Lewis and the Rev. J. J. Byrne were the masters of ceremonies. At the right of the altar were a large number of Dunwoodie students and of the clergy of the diocese in black cassocks and white surplices. On the left of the altar the chanced choir, also in black and white, balanced the minor clergy on the right, while the altar boys in red cassocks and lace surplices, with the gorgeous gold embroidered robes of the Archbishop and his assistant celebrant and thousands of lilies and of brightly tinted flowers before the lighted altar, lent color to the scene. The processional sung by the chancel choir was "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today," by Winkwort. The propert of the mass was Gregorian and also was sung by the chancel choir. The ordinary of the mass—Mitterer's Mass, opus 76—was given by the choir in the loft of some fifty voices, accompanied by the organ and an orchestra under the leadership of J. C. Ungerer, organist of the Cathedral. The offertory was "Terra Tremuit," by Wiegand, and the recessional was the coronation march from Meyerbeer's "Le Prophète."

The Rey. Daniel J. Quinn, S. J., presi-

Prophète."

The Rev. Daniel J. Quinn, S. J., president of Fordham University, preached ceived the sacraments of penance and the Holy Eucharist.

OLD TRINITY THRONGED. Many Unable to Get Into the Church Stand Patiently in the Corridor.

Easter is a great day at old Trinity. so much as at Trinity. And then there are all the country cousins of New Yorknary at Dunwoodie served as deacon and ers who want to get inside the church to will follow them.

or light around the arches, and some who were under six feet tall got their vision through straw and feathers interlaced.

The introit was Gadsby's "He is Risen" and the offertory was Haydn's "Christ Our Passover is Sacrificed for Us." The communion service was Hummel's communion in D.

The Rev Dr. Wil preached the sermon. Dr. William T. Manning

SQUEEZED OUT OF ENGLAND. Hard Times Send 179 Colonists in a Bunch to Canada.

In the second cabin of the American liner St. Paul, in yesterday from Southampton and Cherbourg, were 179 natives and residents of England of the middle class bound for the Canadian Northwest. Uptown New Yorkers who have moved too far away to get back often, return on Easter Sunday, and with them come a crowd of occasional churchgoers who think that Easter can mean nowhere else so much as at Trinity. And then there

What Else Please? WASHBURN-CROSBY'S GOLDMEDAL FLOUR Nothing ElseThank You Just GOLD MEDAL FLOUR